THE ROAD WARRIORS OF '92

Despite having just four away contests this season, the Sea Gulls will feel as if they are on the road with Charles Kuralt as they will log over 2,600 miles—all by bus.

SSU's shortest trip will be a 524-mile round trip trek to cross-state rival Frostburg. The longest trip is 716 miles up and back to Albany, NY. In addition, the Sea Gulls make two visits to North Carolina this year, once to Methodist (692 miles) and once to Guilford (710 miles).

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Salisbury State University Sports Information Office hopes that this year's edition of the Sea Gull football guide proves to be useful in your coverage of the SSU football team. The following information should help to make your job easier.

Credentials

Please contact the Sports Information Office prior to game day to make arrangements for credentials. Scouting passes for press box seating will be arranged upon availability after meeting the needs of the working press.

Services

Pre-game information including rosters, lineups, game notes and current statistics will be provided in the press box. Complete statistics are kept during the game and provided at halftime and following the game. Final statistics will be available approximately 20 minutes following the game's conclusion.

Interviews

Salisbury State coaches and players will be available for interviews approximately 10 minutes after all games. Any requests to interview players or coaches during the week should be made in advance to the Sports Information Office so that the student's academic or athletic schedule is not disrupted.

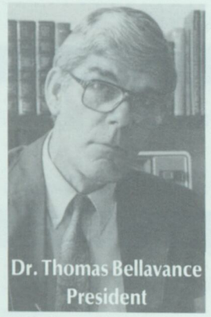
APPOINTED ON JULY 1, 1980, DR. THOMAS E. BELLAVANCE HAS PRESIDED OVER THE MOST DRAMATIC PERIOD OF GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT IN THE 67-YEAR HISTORY OF SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY. Under his leadership, SSU has added seven undergraduate degree programs, 40 percent more dormitory space, a $16 million academic building, an $11 million university center, a symphony orchestra, a public radio station and three endowed schools. Overall, endowments have grown from $29,095 to over $8.5 million. Student SAT scores, below the state and national averages when he arrived, are now above both.



Dr. Thomas Bellavance
President

Bellavance, 58, came to Salisbury from Framingham (MA) State College, where he was vice president of academic affairs. His career includes seven years on the faculty of the Michigan State University Department of American Thought & Language, and he once taught English and history at the American School in El Salvador.

A published poet, Bellavance has served as a consultant and has written literary reviews for Choice, a publication of the Association of College and Research Libraries. In a recent interview he said that his poetry-writing days are behind him. "Instead of scanning iambic pentameter, I scan budgets."

Bellavance does admit, however, that his diverse education has served him well as an administrator. "The administration of anything is human nature. There are no formulas to it; you need to bring everything to it: history, political science, microbiology physics, music, art . . . I wouldn't trade my education. It has served me well."

DR. WILLIAM E. LIDE HAS BEEN THE HEAD OF THE SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT SINCE 1987, when he assumed the dual roles of director of athletics as well as chair of the Physical Education and Recreation Department. Lide, who came to Salisbury from Winston-Salem State University in North Carolina, has helped move SSU to the forefront of Division III institutions with its commitment to establishing both athletic achievement and academic excellence among its student-athletes.

Dr. William Lide
Director of Athletics

During his tenure, SSU squads have made four NCAA Final Four appearances, and 18 NCAA Tournament appearances, have won 23 Eastern States Athletic Conference championships and have averaged 100 student-athletes each semester on the athletic honor roll, signifying grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

Lide is currently serving in his third year as a member of the NCAA Council, where he is one of just 11 Division III representatives. He serves on several of that body's committees and subcomittees, including the District II Postgraduate Scholarship Selection Committee, which he has chaired since last January. Additionally, Lide is now in his second term as president of the Eastern States Athletic Conference.

Since 1987, significant improvements have been made in many areas of the SSU athletics program, including facilities, equipment and transportation. Highlights include the establishment of an $80,000 on-campus Nautilus Center for use by both student-athletes and the general student population; the establishment of a Hall of Fame trophy case and renewal of the Hall of Fame awards banquet; and the initiation of a departmental student-athlete drug education program.

Lide earned his B.S. in physical education and health from Johnson C. Smith University in 1973, where he later returned to serve as chair of the department from 1980-84. After playing two years of professional football with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League in 1974-75, Lide resumed his formal education by earning a Master of Education from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1976. He then earned his Ph.D. in physical education from Ohio State University in 1980.

Lide and his wife, Cheryl, live in Salisbury, and have three daughters, Desi Danielle, Amber Nicole and Lindsey Koren.

SSU University Profile

A Life of the Mind That Embraces Diversity

With the backing of the SSU Foundation, each fall biology students sail aboard the Aquarius, a 65-foot research vessel, to study the Chesapeake Bay.

Geography students chart Maryland's wetlands through the use of French satellites and infrared photography.

Students in the International Business Seminar, with scholarship assistance from Mercantile Bankshares, spend three weeks visiting 20 companies in five Western European countries.

SSU professors are respected internationally. A husband and wife team were both awarded Fulbrights to Jordan. A nursing professor works with the African Medical and Research Foundation (AMREF), famed for its flying doctor service in East Africa.

With Fulbright professors and National Endowment for the Humanities scholars, faculty degrees represent institutions as distinguished as Carnegie-Mellon, Chicago, Columbia, Dartmouth, Duke, Edinburgh, Georgetown, Johns Hopkins, Northwestern, University of Paris, Princeton and Yale.

According to a recent two-year survey SSU students won scholarships worth over $1 million to some of the most respected graduate, medical and law schools in the nation. They include the University of Pennsylvania, the College of William and Mary, Carnegie-Mellon, and Johns Hopkins.

What To Do When Studying's Through

Bethany Beach, Ocean City and Assateague Island: 30-35 minutes away.

University-sponsored trips to museums and theatres in Washington and NYC. A recent trip included "Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway.

International and popular film series on campus. Recent movies ranged from "A World Apart" to "Pink Flamingos."

Comedians, nationally known rock groups, top 40 dance bands and National Campus Entertainer of the Year Award winners—sponsored by the student Program Board.

Two campus radio stations including a National Public Radio affiliate.

Two art galleries, a dance company and theatre club.

30 intramural sports, from racquetball to sailing.

17 NCAA Division III sports: baseball, field hockey, football, soccer, softball, swimming, volleyball, and men's and women's basketball, cross country, lacrosse, tennis, and track and field.

Several choirs from Collegium to Gospel; home of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra.

A civic-minded Greek system.

80 different student organizations.

Ten Significant Accomplishments Under President Bellavance

1) SATs rose from 848 in 1980 to 1035 in 1991, an increase of 187 points.
2) Applications went from less than 2,000 in 1980 to over 4,500 in 1991.
3) Assets in the SSU Foundation totaled $32,261 in 1980. For 1992 assets totalled over $13 million.
4) 10 new buildings and structures have been constructed or renovated since 1980. Total construction amount: over $44 million.
5) Achieved University status in 1988.
6) Academic structure reorganized into five schools in 1980: Business; Education and Professional Studies; Liberal Arts; Nursing and Health Sciences; and Science and Technology.
7) Three schools endowed at $2.5 million each: the Franklin P. Perdue School of Business; the Richard A. Henson School of Science and Technology; and the Charles R. and Martha N. Fulton School of Liberal Arts. Also, a $1 million endowment by Alan and Patti Guerrieri funds a campus-wide scholarship program.
8) Public radio station, WSCL-FM, owned by SSU Foundation, began broadcasting in 1987. The Salisbury Symphony Orchestra, housed at SSU, was established in 1986.
9) Faculty with Ph.Ds was 54% in 1980; number has grown to 74% as of 1991.
10) Funds available for academic scholarships has grown from $0 in 1980 to over $1 million in 1992.

Quoting Coach Rotellini

On Discipline–"It's something that we stressed from the beginning, from when I took over the program. Discipline is a big priority here, both on and off the football field. We require players to be on time, to be dressed properly for road trips, to complete their academic work, and to demonstrate discipline on the field by carrying out their assignments. We want this discipline to carry over to our players' everyday lives, even after they finish playing football here."

On the Team Concept–"In any team sport, the team must come first, for players and coaches alike. What is best for the team is the most important thing. I believe that we have players and coaches in our program right now who support that idea. It's really the basis for having any success. Average talent can accomplish great things if they believe in the team concept."

On the Role of Coaching at SSU–"It's a unique situation here in a lot of ways. Even at many Division III schools today, you find full-time football coaches. Here, I'm an instructor and the football coach, which can be a difficult balance to keep. The demands of teaching in the classroom, directing the football program and recruiting sometimes stretches a person to the limit. But we do what we must to be successful. Teaching, advising, committee work and recruiting are all things that must be done. Our assistant coaches also have the same type of responsibilities."

On Setting Priorities–"I believe this is very critical as both coaches and players. Our players are students first, and their top priority should be to be the best students possible. Their second priority should be to be the best football players possible. And their third priority should be to become the best citizens they can be. As coaches, our priorities are to have a disciplined and well-coached team. As coaches and players together, a priority is to have integrity throughout our program and to outwork everybody else on our schedule. Then the top priority for our program is to have all of our players graduate."

On Recruiting–"At any level, recruiting is probably the most important factor in having a successful program. At the Division III level, recruiting is different than other levels because it goes on all year long. We have a very structured and organized recruiting process that starts in midsummer and continues until late spring. Our coaches go on the road, visiting schools and attending camps, and encouraging prospective student-athletes to visit. We have a beautiful campus, fine facilities, a great location and strong academics to sell. But it's a very competitive University, with athletes and non-athletes wanting to come. In two years, we've recruited over 100 student-athletes to our program and the University."

Joseph Rotellini Head Coach

As he enters his third year as the head coach of the Salisbury State University football program, Joe Rotellini is confident that the organized and disciplined process of rebuilding that he has overseen since taking over will soon be paying dividends.

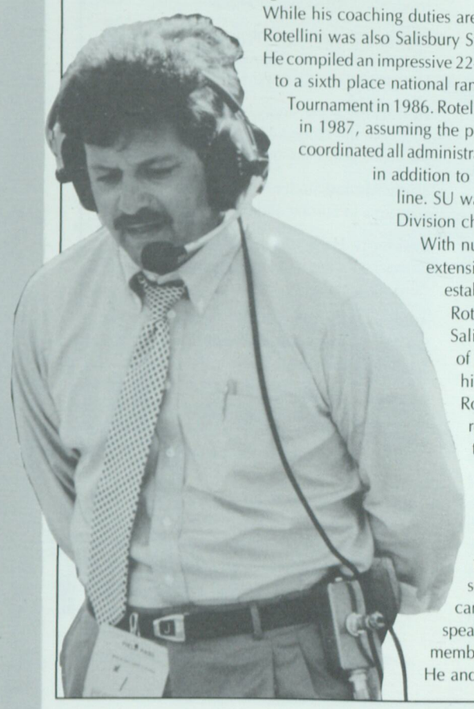
"We have a system that's now implemented, returning players who know what they need to do to succeed and an incoming recruiting class for a second year that has both quantity and quality," says Rotellini.

Although he became a head coach for the first time when he was introduced as the new SSU head man on March 4, 1990, Rotellini, 37, brought with him an impressive resume of coaching credentials. He had spent 12 years as an assistant coach, including two years as an assistant previously at SSU. The Sea Gulls advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs in both seasons, finishing as the national championship runnersup in 1986.

A native of McDonald, PA, Rotellini holds an associate degree from Anne Arundel Community College in Maryland, and received his Bachelor of Arts in physical education and health from Bethany (WV) College in 1977. He later earned his Master of Education in administration and supervision from Loyola (MD) College in 1982.

Rotellini began his football coaching career at Anne Arundel CC as an assistant coach in 1978. He then moved on to Glen Burnie (MD) High School as an assistant varsity coach and head junior varsity coach from 1979-84.

In 1984, Rotellini joined the staff at Alfred University in New York, where he served as an assistant, coaching the defensive line. One year later, he returned to Maryland and began his first stint with the Sea Gulls. In his initial season at Salisbury, Rotellini coordinated a defense that was ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense. The following year, with primary duties as offensive line coach, he helped the Gulls achieve national rankings of second in total offense, third in rushing offense and eighth in scoring offense.



While his coaching duties are now limited to head coach for football only, Rotellini was also Salisbury State's head lacrosse coach in 1986 and 1987. He compiled an impressive 22-10 record in his two seasons, and led the Gulls to a sixth place national ranking and a berth in the NCAA Championship Tournament in 1986. Rotellini joined the staff at Shippensburg University in 1987, assuming the position of assistant head football coach. He coordinated all administrative duties for the Red Raider football program in addition to his on-field coaching duties with the offensive line. SU was the Pennsylvania Conference's Western Division champion in 1988.

With numerous contacts throughout Maryland, an extensive resume of teaching and coaching, and an established reputation as a solid recruiter of talent, Rotellini is on his way to re-establishing the Salisbury State University football program as one of the best on the East Coast. "There's been a history of football success here at SSU," says Rotellini, "and with an excellent academic reputation, a beautiful campus and fine facilities, the future should once again be a very bright one."

Rotellini is a member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), and is a past president of the Anne Arundel County Coaches Association. He is also a frequent speaker at football clinics throughout the region, and serves as an instructor at several different football camps each summer. He makes numerous local speaking appearances each year as a popular member of the SSU Speakers Bureau.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Salisbury.

Assistant Coaches

Aubrey Kelly
Defensive Coordinator

Kelly is now in his third season with the Sea Gull program and his second as defensive coordinator. Kelly came to SSU after prior coaching stints at Southwest Texas State University and Southern Connecticut. A lecturer in SSU's Physical Education Department, Kelly also serves as the Athletic Department's recruiting coordinator and is co-head coach of the Sea Gull track and field team in the spring.

Robb Disbennett
QBs/Receivers

A former standout quarterback for the Sea Gulls, Disbennett begins his second season on the Salisbury staff this year. He served as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State before returning to the Eastern Shore. Disbennett still holds numerous SSU passing records, including career attempts and yards, completions in a game and in a career, most touchdown passes in a game, season and career, and most consecutive passes completed.

Kevin Colliton
Offensive Line

Having played and coached in Salisbury in the mid-80s, Colliton is in his third season with the current staff at SSU. After his initial run with the Gulls, Colliton served as the offensive coordinator at Shippensburg University for three seasons before returning to Salisbury State in 1990.

Wayne Bradford
Defensive Line

Another former Sea Gull player now in his third season as an assistant coach, Bradford will work primarily with the defensive linemen this year. He worked with the inside linebackers last year after assisting with the defensive line and helping with scouting in his initial season. Bradford is also enrolled in the M.B.A. program at SSU.

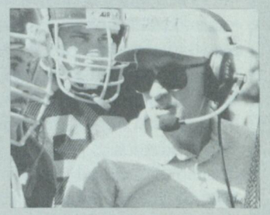
Jay Mooney
Outside Linebackers

Also returning for his third season on the Sea Gull coaching staff, Mooney's primary duty will be with the outside linebackers. After serving as Coach Rotellini's primary administrative aide two years ago, Mooney is in his second season as a position coach in 1992. The past several years, Mooney has also worked as a part-time intern for the Washington Redskins.

Tom Byrd
Assistant Offensive Line

A former player and coach at Menlo College in California, Byrd is in his second year at SSU, where he will assist Colliton with the Sea Gulls' offensive line. Byrd is also completing his graduate studies at Salisbury State.

Coaching Staff (L-R): J.R. Harmon, Kevin Colliton, Jay Mooney, Butch Helsing, Joe Rotellini, Wayne Bradford, Robb Disbennett, Aubrey Kelly, Tom Byrd.



Butch Helsing
Running Backs

After serving in a number of varied roles last year as the offensive intern, Helsing assumes primary responsibility for the coaching of the running backs this season. Now in his second year with the Sea Gulls, Helsing was an assistant coach at Annapolis (MD) High School before joining the SSU staff.

J.R. Harmon
Inside Linebackers

A four-year letterman for the Sea Gulls, Harmon is in his second year on the coaching staff and begins his first season as the coach of the inside linebackers. A defensive lineman during his playing days, Harmon assisted with the line last year while also spending a lot of his time in scouting opponents.

Gulls Hope to Improve With Added Experience, Depth in 1992

If the old coaching adage that says games are won and lost in the trenches is true, then Salisbury State has reason for optimism entering the 1992 football season. As third-year coach Joe Rotellini scans his roster, the areas that appear to be the most experienced and deep units on his squad are along the offensive and defensive lines. Five starters and seven lettermen return along the offensive front while four starters and seven lettermen are back on the defensive front four. In all, the Sea Gulls return 37 lettermen from last year's 1-9 squad, and feature 15 returning players with starting experience. Rotellini's recruiting efforts have brought added talent and depth to several positions, but a few notable losses will also mean that newcomers will have to step in immediately at some spots. A closer look at the 1992 Sea Gull team, position by position:

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD

Junior Len Annetta returns as the incumbent at quarterback after starting all 10 games as a sophomore. Annetta passed for 1,161 yards last season while completing 89 of 206 passes. Entering his third year in Rotellini's pro-style offense, the junior is likely to post his most impressive numbers yet and is a good bet to improve on 1991's four touchdown, eight interception totals. Rotellini anticipates a solid campaign ahead for Annetta. "We expect Len to have a very good season and to be more consistent this year. As a team captain, he should also be a solid leader for us."

Rotellini has moved James McCormick, last year's number two signal-caller, to the defensive backfield, so Annetta's understudy is likely to emerge from a group that includes three freshmen—Marty Brennan, Derrick Arnold, Marc Thomas—and a sophomore transfer, David Doy.

The biggest hole on this year's team will be the need to replace last year's offensive MVP, Pierre Copes. The versatile back accounted for 1,684 all-purpose yards last year, topping the team in rushing, receiving, returns and points. The number one running back entering the season is Ron Stump. The stocky sophomore (5-7, 200), who gained 83 yards in spot duty last year, is the top returning rusher. First-year sophomore Brian Stephens and freshmen John Jennings, Andy Dawson and William Boyd are the top candidates vying for time behind Stump.

Three returning players will try to claim the fullback spot vacated by the graduations of Jason Barton and Rich Marinucci. None of the three players—Mark Kline, Stan Griffin or Rett Warren—have ever carried the ball in a varsity game.

"Obviously, our biggest concern is in replacing Pierre," said Rotellini. "We may simplify our running game somewhat, but mainly, we will be looking for consistency. We definitely expect to have some new people stepping in right away."

RECEIVERS

Two-year letterman Charlie Whalen is the only experienced wideout back in 1992. The junior ranked fourth in receptions last year with 11 catches and an average of 12.3 yds/catch. Rotellini may also feature Whalen, who started six games last year and saw action in all 10 contests, on kick returns. Sophomore Mike Hurley (6-0, 185), a part-time starter at safety last year, will try to claim the other starting spot at receiver. Three newcomers—sophomore transfer Mark Sloan and freshmen Shawn Powell and Chris Camolilla—also figure to contribute right away.

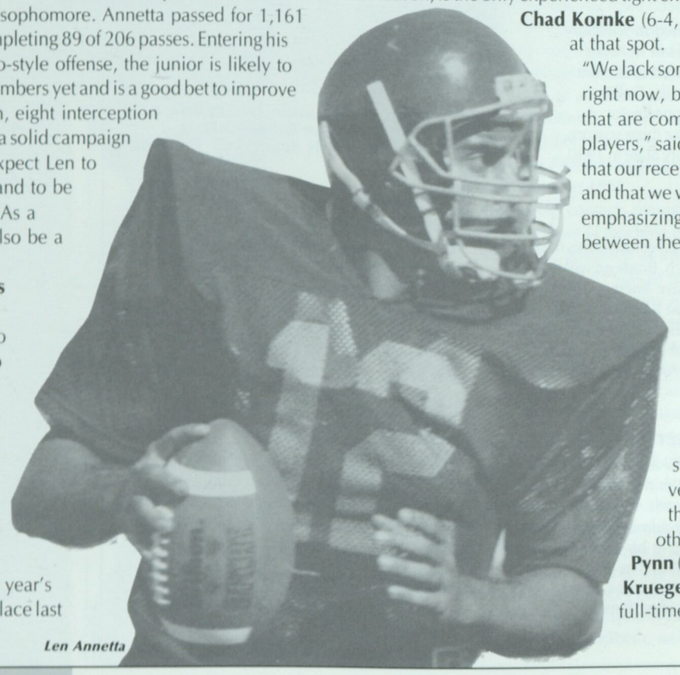
Junior Tim Feerrar (5-11, 210), used primarily as a blocker last season, is the only experienced tight end returnee. Newcomer Chad Kornke (6-4, 220) should add depth at that spot.

"We lack some depth at wide receiver right now, but we think the people that are coming in are quality players," said Rotellini. "I really feel that our receiving will be very good and that we will be able to continue emphasizing the balance we want between the run and the pass."



Len Annetta

OFFENSIVE LINE

The deepest and most experienced unit on the offense entering the season is the line. Senior guard Joe Darminio (6-1, 250) returns as the elder statesman among a veteran unit, beginning his third year as a starter. Two other seniors, tackle Daryl Pynn (6-5, 260) and guard Kurt Krueger (6-0, 230) return as full-time starters for a second season. Junior tackle Roman Keefe (6-1, 250) and sophomore center Colin Joseph (6-2, 215) also gained starting experience in 1991. Adding further depth to the unit will be the return of junior Kevin Scannell (6-0, 220), who missed all of 1991 with a leg injury. Sophomore Don Brady (6-2, 215) is also a likely contributor among the returnees. "The offensive line showed real improvement last year and we expect that they will carry us until we settle on some backs and receivers," said Rotellini. "We're counting on them to be the strength of the offense." A sound group of incoming players should also add depth behind the veterans on the line, with transfer Adam Funk (6-6, 300), perhaps the most likely candidate to contribute immediately.

Rick Helton

DEFENSIVE LINE

Complimenting the depth and experience on the offensive line is a veteran group back along the defensive front. Four starters lead a group of six returning lettermen back in 1992. Junior Dan Quinn (6-2, 250) and sophomore Brian Nelson (6-1, 220) are back as the likely starters at the end spots. Quinn had 50 tackles, including one sack and three other tackles for loss, last year, while Nelson added 42 tackles, including five tackles for loss. Junior Russell Lewis (6-0, 200) is likely to see primary duty as a pass rushing specialist, while redshirt freshmen Tommy Ryan (6-1, 220) and Kevin Vail (5-11, 220) add depth at the end spots.

Senior Dave Stofa (6-0, 235) and sophomore Jim Cave (6-0, 265) are the returning incumbents at the tackle positions. Stofa made 30 tackles and added two fumble recoveries last season while Cave added 14 stops in spot duty. Sophomore Bill Sabbagh (6-2, 230) should also see considerable action, while sophomore transfer Brian Schaumloffel (6-1, 250) and redshirt freshman Mike Schemerhorn (6-4, 260) could also contribute.

"We have a number of guys up front who have extensive playing experience," said Rotellini. "This is the best depth we've had along the line in my three seasons here and we expect it to pay dividends."

LINEBACKERS

A number of familiar names and faces return among the linebacking corps, headed by last year's top tackler and defensive MVP, senior Rick Helton. Serving as one of the team's four captains for the second straight year, Helton (6-1, 230) certainly did all he could to lead by example last year, recording 138 tackles, including one sack and five tackles for loss. He also caused two fumbles, recovered two others, and had three pass breakups.

Junior Greg Parkins (5-11, 205), who emerged during last season's second half and recorded 52 tackles, is likely to compliment Helton at one of the other linebacker spots. Junior Scott Woehrle (14 tackles) and sophomore Jody Ward (10 tackles) should also contribute as inside backers.

The outside linebackers include sophomores Kevin Bradford (5-10, 195), Brian Gallavan (5-11, 195) and Tim Ammon (5-10, 190). Bradford started throughout most of the '91 season and finished fifth on the team with 61 tackles, while Gallavan played primarily on special teams last year. Transfers Angelo Morreale and Todd Burrell could also contribute as newcomers.

"With the talent we have returning at linebacker to compliment the depth we have on the line, I think our run defense should be much improved this year," said Rotellini.

DEFENSIVE SECONDARY

A mix of returnees, newcomers and transplants hope to bring added stability, not to mention speed, to the secondary. The most experienced of the group figures to be junior Henry Fehlman (5-9, 175), a starter since his freshman season. Fehlman, second to Helton in tackles last season with 104, has seen duty at both cornerback and safety and could settle at either spot once again in 1992. Also returning for his senior campaign after starting five games last season is Josh Bacon (6-0, 195). Bacon had 37 tackles last year while tying for team-high honors with two interceptions.

Ex-quarterback James McCormick (6-1, 185) has been shifted to the secondary where the coaches hope to utilize his overall athletic skills, probably at safety. Also flipping from offense to defense is former running back Tony McCray (5-9, 180), one of the team's fastest players. Rotellini thinks that both moves will pay immediate dividends. "We wouldn't have moved either one of those guys if we didn't think they could help us right away."

Other returnees who should contribute in the secondary include junior Jim Romans (6-1, 180), who played both cornerback and safety in '91, and redshirt freshmen Tommy Nelson (6-2, 170) and Mike Brogden (6-1, 200). Three other freshmen—Chris Smith, Kevin Powell and Eric Loney—add further depth.

"We have some experience in the secondary, but we will be counting on some newcomers to contribute," said Rotellini. "Developing some depth in this area will be among our top priorities during the preseason."

SPECIAL TEAMS

With last year's regular punter, kicker and return man all having graduated, the special teams will need to be completely rebuilt in 1992. Three candidates—freshmen Vince Craig and Matt McGinnis and first-year sophomore Vernon Brown—will be vying for the kicking job vacated by the departure of Rob Grande. Redshirt junior Dan Gregory is the top candidate to assume the punting duties, although Bill Golocinski, Eric Loney or Mike Ellis could also emerge. Rotellini has no front-runners for the punt and kickoff return jobs, although Charlie Whalen, James McCormick, Tony McCray and Ron Stump have all served in the roles, albeit in a limited capacity.

10 Gulls to Watch in '92

coaches and players

Len Annetta

Josh Bacon

Joe Darminio

Henry Fehlman

Rick Helton

LEN ANNETTA
Quarterback

The undisputed leader of the offense in 1992...Started all ten games last season while passing for 1,161 yards, the sixth highest single-season total in school history...He also owns the team's single-game passing record of 317 yards, set against Hampden-Sydney as a freshman...Already ranks fourth in career passing yards after just two seasons...Big and strong athlete who is best suited to the drop-back style of throwing...One of four team captains for 1992.

JOSH BACON
Defensive Back

Returning for his third season with the Sea Gulls after transferring from Frostburg State...A two-year letterman who started five games in the secondary last year...Finished the season with 37 tackles and also tied for team-high honors with two interceptions...Also recovered two fumbles in 1991...An experienced defender who will be counted on for valuable leadership in the defensive backfield.

JOE DARMINIO
Offensive Guard

Among the team's most consistent linemen the last two seasons, he returns for his third year as a starter...Was recognized for his outstanding efforts by being selected as the squad's offensive MVP following the 1990 season...Was one of the keys to an improved unit in 1991 and will once again serve as an anchor on the line in 1992.

HENRY FEHLMAN
Defensive Back

Will be one of the key figures in a rebuilt secondary...A starter since his freshman year, he has the ability to play both cornerback and safety...Finished second on the defense in tackles last year with 104, after making 34 stops in his freshman campaign...Had one interception, three pass breakups and three caused fumbles in 1991...Among the team's fastest players, he also competes as a sprinter on the track team in the spring.

RICK HELTON
Linebacker

The core of the defense last year, he led the squad with 138 tackles...Posted a career-best 22 tackles against Guilford, while also notching games of 18, 16 and 16 tackles during the season...Added one sack, five other tackles for losses, three pass breakups, two fumble recoveries and two caused fumbles to his impressive 1991 accomplishments...Not surprisingly, he was named the team's defensive MVP last year...Will serve as a team captain for the second straight year.

Kurt Krueger

Daryl Pynn

Dan Quinn

Dave Stofa

Charlie Whalen

KURT KRUEGER
Offensive Guard

Became a full-time starter on the line last year as a result of hard work and discipline...Fierce competitor who brought stability to the unit in 1991, making the line one of the team's most improved areas...A vocal and enthusiastic athlete, he has been chosen by his teammates as one of the team's four captains in 1992.

DARYL PYNN
Offensive Tackle

One of the team's biggest (6-5, 260) and strongest athletes, he returns for his second full year as a starter...Joins Darminio and Krueger as an anchor on the offensive line...Exhibits good agility and quickness for his size...Made the transition to offense after initially starting as a defensive lineman with the Sea Gulls.

DAN QUINN
Defensive End

Made a solid contribution to the defensive line last year after missing all of the 1990 season with a knee injury...Finished 1991 with 50 tackles, including one sack and three tackles for loss...Also caused two fumbles last year...Has worked very hard to overcome his injury and make the transition from linebacker to defensive end...Also competes on the track team and owns the school record in the hammer throw...Will be one of the football captains for 1992.

DAVE STOFA
Defensive Tackle

A three-year letterwinner who returns as a starter on the defensive front...A consistent performer, he made 30 tackles and had two fumble recoveries in 1991 after recording 31 tackles and one fumble recovery in 1990...His experience should be an asset for a deep, yet young defensive line this year.

CHARLIE WHALEN
Wide Receiver

The team's most experienced returning wideout in 1992...A shifty player with good hands, he finished fourth in receptions last year with 11 for 135 yards... Averaged 12.3 yds/reception, with a long of 35 yards against Newport News...His best game came against Wagner, catching three balls for 46 yards...He also had four kickoff returns for an average of 17.5 yards last year, and could see more extensive duty as a return man in 1992.

SSU Hall of Fame

ESTABLISHED IN 1985, THE SSU HALL OF FAME RECOGNIZES THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE MADE A SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION TO THE LEGACY OF SEA GULL ATHLETICS, EITHER THROUGH THEIR ATHLETIC ACCOMPLISHMENTS OR THEIR SUPPORT OF THE PROGRAM. The Hall operates under the direction of an executive committee, headed by Executive Director Dr. Goldy Tyler.

The Hall of Fame currently includes 30 members, with four more nominees scheduled for induction during this fall's Homecoming Weekend. The Hall's membership presently includes three individuals who were associated with the Sea Gull football program, Jeff Polk, Levi Shade and Mike McGlinchey. These individuals and the other members of the Hall are recognized in a permanent Hall of Fame display case found in the lobby of the Maggs Center.

FOOTBALL GUEST COACH PROGRAM

Continuing a program that began in 1991, the SSU Athletic Department invites interested individuals to participate as football guest coaches during the 1992 season. The guest coach, who will be under the supervision of Head Coach Joe Rotellini, will become a member of the football staff for a complete week preceeding an SSU home game.

The guest coach will gain a unique insight into the behind-the-scenes activities of the football staff through hands-on involvement. He or she will take part in staff meetings, strategy sessions, film breakdown, field practices and more during the week, then spend game day in the locker room and on the sidelines with the team. No previous coaching or football experience is necessary.

The following is a listing of possible activities during the week:

Sunday	1-4 p.m.	Staff meeting and breakdown of opponent's game film.
	4:30-5:30 p.m.	Team meeting.
	6-9 p.m.	Start on upcoming week's game plan.
Tuesday	2-3 p.m.	Staff meeting, planning practice, finalize game plan.
Thursday	3:30-5:30 p.m.	Attend practice, split time with offense and defense.
Game Day	9-10 a.m.	Attend pre-game meal and eat with the team.
	10-11 a.m.	Pre-game meetings (offense and defense).
	1:30 p.m.	Spend the game on the sidelines with the team.

There will be only one guest coach per week, and the program is only for weeks in which the Sea Gulls play at home. If interested, contact Head Coach Joe Rotellini (543-6340) or Associate Athletics Director Dr. Mike Vienna (543-6343) as soon as possible.

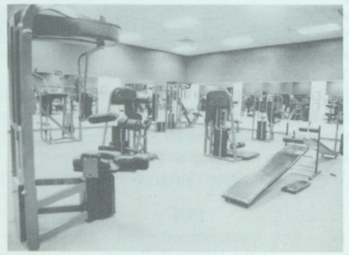
Cramer Student Trainers Workshop

For the last five summers, Salisbury State University has been among a small handful of institutions nationwide to host the popular Student Athletic Trainers Workshop, co-sponsored by Cramer Products, Inc. Geared for high school and college-age students interested in athletic training careers, the event attracts participants from throughout the Mid-Atlantic states region. Coordinated by SSU's Pat Lamboni, A.T.C., the workshop features a mix of classroom instruction with hands-on lab sessions, where students practice techniques such as taping amd wrapping.

Nautilus Room Sports Medicine

Among the most prominent and popular features of the Maggs P.A. Center is the fully-equipped Nautilus weight and conditioning room. The full-circuit room features 22 Nautilus machines, eight life cycles, four stair masters, a Concept II rowing ergometer and a health monitor (cardio analysis system). Serving as a complement to the more traditional, loose-weight room, the Nautilus center is used for training and conditioning by SSU's varsity teams as well as for recreational purposes and personal fitness by a majority of the other students, staff and faculty.



Nautilus Room

Recognized as one of the premier sports medicine/athletic training programs on the East Coast, Pat Lamboni, A.T.C., heads a dedicated staff of individuals who lend their support to all 17 varsity sports at Salisbury State University. Concerned primarily with the prevention and care of athletic-related injuries, Lamboni's staff provides Sea Gull student-athletes with a professional and supervised environment for the rehabilitation and treatment of injuries. Each SSU sports squad enjoys the luxury of having capable and prepared student-trainers assigned full time to the team. Under Lamboni's supervision, these student-trainers carefully administer to all of the day-to-day individual needs of each player.

Many of the students completing their degrees in athletic training serve a senior year internship at a local high school, where they gain invaluable experience as the head trainer for all of the school's athletic teams.
